A GOOD MOVE.

The decision by the City Council at its last meeting to build a two story brick building as headquarters for the Excelsior Fire Company is a step in the right direction, and we hope to see the contract let and active work begun in a short time. The building, as proposed, is needed now, and will be needed more when the horse hose wagon is installed. The Fire Company ought to have it and the town ought to own it. The site is a good one, convenient and centrally located, and a structure of this kind here, besides its usefulness, would much improve the appearance of the town and reflect credit upon the progressive council which made it possible.

By all means let the work be pushed, and it will not be long until Newberry will have as good fire protection as any town its size in this country.

It is only about two weeks now until the opening of the State campaign. More than sixty candidates are already announced for the various positions, and no doubt there will be more, who are at present waiting for their friends to urge them a little more strongly. The party composed of Senatorial and Congressional candidates will make its first appearance at Columbia on Tuesday, June 17th, winding up its round at Winnsboro on the 21st of August. The candidates for State offices will start at Sumter and finish at Columbia. These will be in Newberry on July 8th, and the Senatorial party on July 29th.

It is to be hoped that the campaign this year will be devoid of personalities and that the candidates will endeavor to show their fitness for the offices to which they aspire rather than the unfriendliness of their opponents. The double series of meetings will give to each time to present fully his views on all issues which are likely to confront a man in the office which he seeks and to show his own peculiar fitness for the position. In fact, we hope and believe the time will not be long coming in South Carolina when a man who indulges in abusive personalities on the stump will not be put in office by our people, and the quicker they demand that the campaign shall be conducted on a high plane the better it will be for the system, the State and all concerned.

The rumor each day becomes more persistent that President Roosevelt has tendered Senator McLaughlin a position as Judge of the Court of claims, and it is said that the President is sick of the hope of establishing a white Republican party in South Carolina, and when McLaughlin has been cared for he will pay no more attention to the "McLaughlin Commercial Democracy".

Should Mr. McLaughlin accept and send in his resignation from the position which he now holds before the primary election, matters would become somewhat complicated in this State. No doubt the candidates for his position are eagerly watching his every move.

The appointment of W. L. Harris as postmaster in Charleston, is said to have been due entirely to relations existing between him and District Attorney Capers. The appointment was a surprise to the Charleston people and to the old-line Republicans in this State, who had hardly regarded Harris as even a possibility. It seems that Capers has become distributor of Federal patronage in South Carolina.

The Charleston Exposition will close tomorrow night. Those who have attended have been well repaid for their money and their time. Those who have not, missed an opportunity that will not soon return.

Excelsior Items.

The regular service next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The grain in this section will be short. The grain was sown late and the weather too dry.

Our farmers are busy at work now. The cotton is about hosed out and growing nicely.

Mrs. Thompson Young spent last week with her father's family, Mr. A. A. Nates.

Rev. Jas. D. Kinard and family, of Leesville, visited his mother's family here last week.

Some of our people attended communion service at Cannon Creek church on Sunday.

We had the pleasure of attending the Children's Day exercises at Zion church on last Saturday. As usual the exercises were interesting throughout and was presided over by the able Superintendent of the Sunday School, Mr. E. P. Cromer. In the afternoon Rev. W. A. Lutz and Rev. J. S. Abercrombie delivered interesting addresses on Sunday School work. Both of the addresses were good and were listened to by a crowded church. We always enjoy the Children's Day exercises at Zion, the singing is always delightful and the music sweet. Glad to see our friend "Push" in attendance and he was in a good humor shaking hands with his many friends. Sigma.

What Thin Folks Need

Is a greater power of digesting and assimilating food. Fortin Dr. King's New Life Pills work wonders. They tone and regulate the digestive organs, gently expel all poisons from the system, enrich the blood, improve appetite, make healthy flesh. Only 25c at all druggists.

BACHMAN CHAPEL LETTER.

All the News Around Bachman Chapel and Union Academy Interestingly Told by T. J. W.

Health of our section very good with the exception of some dysentery, but none of a serious nature.

Mr. Sam Kinard of the Newberry cotton mills visited relatives in this section last Saturday night and Sunday. The newly elected council of Bachman Chapel church were installed last Sunday. Mr. G. W. Kinard was added to the council.

The weather was quite favorable for farm work last week, and the farmers made good use of the time. The principal part of the cotton will be thinned after this week. Corn and cotton are both looking very well.

We find that day labor on the farm has almost become a thing of the past.

There was communion services at Cannon's Creek church last Sunday. Our R. F. D. route has been supplied with the water proof boxes. They are very convenient but we are still waiting on our daily. Don't put yourselves in too big a hurry, dear friends, we have been waiting patiently and can still wait.

Owing to the high price of provisions and horse food, the cost of making this crop will far exceed that of many past years. Now it behooves every one of us, especially we who are living with borrowed money and on book accounts to cut our expenses as low as possible. The reason we mention these facts at this special time is, we can see some danger confronting us.

This is another campaign year, and a campaign year means a year of extravagance, or at least that has been our past experience. Barbecues and picnics continue for a good while almost every day, and every time you hear of a barbecue or picnic it means a whole lot of provisions wasted. Now shall we continue this lustful waste which, most certainly, if kept up will bring on woe? We hope not. Bacon is very high, and hogs throughout the country are not very plentiful. In the face of this fact we are more opposed to barbecues this year than we have ever been before. Those people we owe want money, and if we continue the practice of extravagance we will never be able to pay them. What I am saying may not amount to a row of pins. But, nevertheless, it is true, and now is the time to present these facts. While there may be a few barbecues and picnics, dear friends, please don't encourage them. Let's refrain from having so many. Don't suck the candidates to death. There's a lot of them going to be left. This thing of begging candidates to contribute to a very little need, and poking bank notes at them to be endorsed ought to be stopped. At the present extravagant way of campaigning the successful candidates are almost losers, for it takes a large per cent of their salaries to place back what they have paid out. Let's not have a campaign meeting in every township; it is too expensive. We know each other well enough, and let's have less wire pulling. We hope the county executive committee will take these thoughts into consideration.

Mrs. H. R. Epps is spending a while with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Rikard, in Long Lane. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. L. B. Epps' little daughter, Bonnie, who has been sick with dysentery for the past week don't seem to improve.

Well, boys, have you been to the Inter-State and West Indian Exposition in Charleston? Yes, a great many of you have been there, and witnessed very many of the wonderful works of nature and art of man.

But there is another wonderful display on hand, and perhaps it is something that will tickle your fancy and give you a little more lasting pleasure than what you have seen in Charleston. This grand display is going on now every day, except Sunday, in the big corner store on Main street just opposite the Newberry hotel. On the interior you will find O. M. Jamieson, with his staff of polite clerks, exhibiting a full line of the most beautiful patterns in men's and boys' suits that your eyes have ever beheld. And to be there and see the crowds carrying out these goods is evidence enough to show that the prices are below the average. Why trade is like running water is an easy problem to solve. It is simply because it always hunts the "lowest" places. You professors and students who are looking forward to a grand time this summer at your conventions and associations, and all you candidates who want to face the public in style will find it to your interest to visit the store of O. M. Jamieson. He has got something that will make you look neat. But there's just a lot of people who want to dress neat and look nice besides the professors, students and candidates, who will all find it to their advantage to visit the big display of clothing at O. M. Jamieson's store.

We made a brief visit over in the Long Lane section last Sunday and spent a short while with our brother, S. A. Rikard, friends J. H. Kibler and R. E. Hunter. These were all our neighbors who moved away from our section last winter. We are glad to see that they are located in a good community on nice farming land. The place is known as Mr. Calvin K. Baker's Mayes place; it is very productive land, and we trust that our friends with all the rest of the community will make good crops. Westopped in a short while on our return home to see Mr. O. K. Baker and family. Mr. Baker is a very enthusiastic farmer and is realizing good profits from his farm. We have a lot of kindred and friends in this community, and we hope soon to be able to make our visit a little longer with them so that we can have a little more to say about Long Lane.

While we are writing we learn that little Bonnie, whom we mentioned above, has taken quite ill, and Mr. Epps has summoned a physician.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Epps' little daughter, Bessie, is also sick.

Mr. Editor, we don't blame you for saying the State Democratic Convention was a representative body. Surely it was, when it took the legislative matter into consideration and passed a resolution favoring the old worn out Child's Labor Bill. That should be laid aside as a dead issue. We should all feel thankful that we live in a free country, and it is time to stop bothering after parents about how they are to work their children. Everybody is not situated alike; nor can everybody do just alike. We venture the assertion that there is nobody who has a better feeling for children than we have; but every man and woman has to provide for their own household.

Very respectfully,
May 27, 1902. T. J. W.

Gleanings Around Timothy Creek.

Lovely weather for farmers. Crops are looking fine. Cotton is about hosed over the first time and is looking fairly well. Gardens are all we could expect of them.

Mr. Eldridge Booser, in company with Mr. Chapel Lake, visited the Charleston Exposition a few days ago.

Mr. Johnnie Cousins, Jr., and Mr. Johnnie Cromer went to Charleston to the Exposition.

Wheat is not quite as good as last year, but is ripening in a hurry. Soon the sound of the roller mill whistle will be heard, and if you want good flour bring your wheat to Mr. Robert Schumper's mill. It makes the best.

Mr. Berley Cromer enjoyed a mess of beans and beefs fresh from his garden the 20th.

Mr. Berley Cromer's baby has been very sick but is some better at this writing.

Mr. Luther Hawkins visited Mr. Daniel Booser Sunday.

Miss Ellie Cousins spent a few days here with her brother's family. She has returned home.

Mr. Eldridge Booser speaks of going into bee culture. He has bought some Italian bees and patented gums and Mr. Herbert came down and fixed his bees.

If you want to learn something about bees talk with Mr. Walter Herbert.

Glad to see Mr. Sidney Wheeler in the race again. He who beats him will have to hustle. Mr. Wheeler is one of our most worthy gentlemen.

Mr. Johnnie Cousins, Jr., and family visited his father's family yesterday.

The writer had the pleasure of seeing and shaking hands with Mrs. Ellie Buford, in Newberry, a short while ago. She had just recovered from a very sick spell and is looking well. Mrs. Buford is one of the most popular ladies of Molokoh. Her many friends will be glad to hear from her.

Our people have from time to time been visiting the Charleston Exposition. Dr. W. E. Lake went and carried his children this week. All report having an enjoyable time.

Picnic at Hartford today.

We are glad to see Mr. John R. Perdew announced as a candidate for County Supervisor.

Our community is alive and full of fun, visiting, etc., all of which go by unmentioned owing to sickness.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-round medicine sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

OFFICE HOURS—Persons having business with the County Superintendent of Education will please call at his office on Mondays and Saturdays, as those are his office days.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod Liver Oil is the means of life, and enjoyment of life to thousands: men women and children.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh, it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge; the thick end is food. But what is the use of food, when you hate it, and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA. EXECUTIVE MANSION.

WHEREAS INFORMATION HAS been received at this department that on the night of the fourth day of May, A. D. 1902, the store and post-office of B. W. Goodwin, at Vaughnville, in the County of Newberry, was burned, and there being reason to believe that the burning was an act of incendiarism,

Now, therefore, I, M. B. McSWENEY, Governor of the State of South Carolina, in order that justice may be done and the majesty of the law vindicated, do hereby offer a reward of One Hundred Dollars for the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who committed said act of incendiarism. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed, at Columbia, this twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1902, and in the 129th year of the Independence of the United States of America.

By the Governor,
M. B. McSWENEY,
M. R. COOPER, Secretary of State.
